Fourth Annual Advance Sale

Fine Furs Commences Monday, Aug. 3, 1903.

All the Approved modes for the Approaching Season at a saving of at least one-third.

The shortness of the furrier's season necessitates highly energetic measures during the Summer months in order to retain the expensive hands necessarily employed on such work.

Each season we take advantage of this trade lull and procure from several of the world's chiefest makers thousands of dollars' worth of the finest garments and skins at a saving of at least one-third. This we in turn impart to those of our patrons who are willing to brave the August heat in order to avail themselves of such pronounced price concessions and obtain first choice from an irreproachable stock, every piece of which is modeled in accordance with the latest and accepted modes.

You have our assurance that the garments thus offered are all new and fresh, in fact our guarantee goes with every one, it matters not how much or how little you pay. You can select any known fur, made-up garments, scarfs, or muffs, or have anything desired constructed to carry out individual ideas. OUR GUARANTEE-We guarantee that all Furs shall be
